FIGHTS INJURED MAN

And Is Fined $50 and Costs by Judge Whitaker—Other Police Court News.

In Police Court yesterday afternoon Ed Wood of the East End was fined $50 and costs for breach of the peace, which consisted in heating up an injured man.

On Halloween night Wood and another man were discovered at the Limestone Bridge. Wood had the man down and was beating him very severely. The man offered Wood ten dollars if he would let him go but he did not do this, replying that he wanted to kill him.

Wood claimed the man had called him a very insulting name and that he had resented it. He said that he had been drinking a little but that he did not remember that he had threatened to kill the man.

Judge Whitaker, after asking a few questions said, "Well to make the thing short, I'll fine you $50 and costs." The man that Wood had beat up had been injured at the dam and was unable to defend himself.

Bruce Wells, Lute Jones and Ham Combes were fined $5.00 apiece for being drunk.

The case of the city against R. M. Wallingford and his son, Lester Wallingford was dismissed on account of lack of evidence.

Mr. and Mrs. John D. Wood entertained Tuesday evening with a Halloween party. The decorations were appropriate to Halloween season. Amusing contests were enjoyed and honors awarded Mrs. Nelson Bratton and Mr. Stanley Wood. At 12 o'clock all masks were removed and a sumptuous lunch was served to the twenty present.

There will be a district convention of the Mason County Sunday School Association held in the Mill Creek Church November 5, at 3 o'clock. Miss Mary Wilson will give a report of the Somerset Convention and Prof. Caplinger will make an address. Each Sunday School in the district is urged to send delegates and report to this meeting.

HELP THE LADIES' AUXILIARY

Did you ever stop to consider the cost to the community of sickness and disease? When the bread winner of the family is laid low, not only is the family deprived of his wages but someone else must give up his work to wait on the sick one. And then there is the expense of medicine and medical attention and food. Everybody knows that prevention is better than cure. Then why not lend a helping hand to the women of the Ladies' Auxiliary in the effort that they are making to raise a fund for the support of the health work in the county and city? As an economic problem this work ought to appeal to every man and woman in the county. The money expended in this work is not like the ordinary gratulities given at our doors but is an investment that pays big dividends in lives saved and disease prevented. Disease prevention will make its appeal to you when your family is the victim of some malady which has its origin among the very people with whom this work is to be done.

Come to the meeting of the Ladies' Auxiliary this afternoon from 2 to 5 o'clock at 215 Court street.

Your help is needed. Come and have your name enrolled as a member.

LECTURE ON TUBERCULOSIS

"Four Years Behind the Bars," is the title of an interesting lecture to be delivered at the First Presbyterian Church on Friday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock by Mr. Joseph Severance, lecturer for the Kentucky Tuberculosis Commission. This lecture is under the auspices of the Educational department of the Woman's Club and is free to the public.

This address is based on the experiences of Mr. Severance while chaplain of the Kentucky State Prison. It has to do with the causes of crime and its prevention. The lecture will be of interest to all ages and all are invited to be present.

You will not be asked for a contribution as there is no solicitation of funds at this meeting.

Junior Redpath Club can get first edition of Junior Redpath Chautauqua at DE NUZIE.

FIRST PROGRAM

Of the Adelphe and Athenaeum Literary Societies of the High School Will Be Held in the Auditorium Friday, November 3.

The first program of the Adelphe Athenaeum Literary Societies of the High School will be held in the auditorium of the High School building tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock. The program will be a joint one, as it is the custom to have the first entertainment a joint one.

The program for the afternoon's entertainment will be as follows:

1. Song by High School.
2. Presidents' Messages: Athenaeum, C. Wood; Adelphe, W. Giesel.
3. Secretary's Reports: Adelphe, F. Marsh; Athenaeum, G. Hicks.
4. Society Tapers: Athenaeum, Chronicle, F. Barbour; Adelphe, Review, A. Ireland.
5. Boys' Quartette.
6. Readings: Adelphe, H. Caplinger; Athenaeum, M. Keboe.
7. Movie Take-off on "Uncle Tom's Cabin."

This is the beginning of the eighth year of the literary societies in the High School, being founded by Miss Nell Sutherland and former superintendent J. W. Bradner, both of whom are now connected with the Ashland school system. A purpose of the societies is to install in the minds of the scholars something of art and literature and to prepare them for public life by compelling them to appear at least once a year before an audience. Formerly the students were placed on the program each year of their stay in the High School but since the school has grown to such large proportions this has been limited to the last three years of the student in the school.

The public is cordially invited to attend the various entertainments throughout the year given by the societies. No charge is made for attendance. The faculty of the school will be pleased to have the parents of the scholars and others to attend as often as possible. Announcements will be made in the columns of this paper at various times of the coming entertainments.

MEMORIAL SERVICE IN HONOR OF DR. J. M. FROST

This service will take the place of the regular prayer meeting at the First Baptist Church tonight at 7 o'clock. Dr. Frost died at his home in Nashville, Tenn., last Monday. From 1871 to 1875 he was pastor of the First Baptist Church of this city. In June of 1871 he graduated from Georgetown College, Ky., married at New Liberty, Ky., and was ordained at Maysville, Ky., later by the First Baptist Church. He was a great man and stood at the very head of a long line of eminent Southern Baptists. His greatest work was done as Corresponding Secretary of the Sunday School Board of the Southern Baptist Convention. Several local citizens who knew him while he was pastor in this city, will take part on the program tonight. Public invited.

PROGRAM

1. Song by the congregation.
2. Prayer.
3. Song by Choir.
4. Newspaper notice of his death—Prof. H. C. Barnes.
5. Biographical Sketch—Mr. Frank S. Tolle.

SMALL ACCIDENT

C. & O. train No. 5 was delayed over an hour yesterday morning while passing Sandhill, just this side of Manchester. A side rod of the engine was thrown and a cylinder head blown out. No trouble further than the delay was caused by the accident.

The Bible School officers and teachers of the First Baptist Church will meet in the Sunday School room tonight at 8:10. Prof. W. J. Caplinger will teach the lesson.

SILVER TEA FRIDAY NIGHT

The Penny Lunch of the First District P. T. A. was instituted two years ago and has since been maintained through the efforts of the few members of this association which has no regular income on which to depend. The results in the health of the children have been so gratifying, it would be deplorable indeed if the present high prices in food stuffs and lack of funds were to force the abandonment of this beneficial work.

Friday night at 7:30 the association will keep open house, serve sandwiches and coffee, give a Victrola concert of exceptionally fine records and above all, give the public an opportunity to hear a reading by Miss Jones—gold medalist of the famous Maudslayer School of Expression.

Come and inspect the really bright, attractive school building, and bring a silver offering as large or as small as your purse can afford. The Association has even expressed a willingness to accept paper, if it is good.

PRAYER MEETING TONIGHT

Regular weekly prayer service at the Third Street M. E. Church tonight at 7 o'clock will be in charge of the pastor, Rev. S. K. Hunt. All members of the Official Board of the church are especially requested to be present. Choir practice immediately following.

THE EIGHT-HOUR DAY

To hear President Wilson talk about the eight-hour day one would think the phrase a linguistic twin of that blessed word Mesopotamia. If there is virtue in the phrase, however, it is the Republican party that can claim the credit.

The first eight-hour-a-day law was enacted by Congress June 25, 1868, when that body was overwhelmingly Republican. It provided that "eight hours shall constitute a day's work for all laborers, workmen and mechanics who may be employed by or on behalf of the government of the United States."

This law has continued in effect to this day. It was amended and extended in the early Nineties, when Thomas B. Reed was in his first term as Speaker, and again in 1912, when a Republican President still occupied the White House.

Among the States, Republican Illinois, in 1903, was the first to establish the eight-hour day for children; and of the twenty-three States which now have legislative restrictions regarding the hours of employment for any class of labor, fifteen are Republican and only eight are Democratic.

The Democratic party never adopted an eight-hour law in federal legislation—for the Adamson bill is not an eight-hour law at all—and whenever a Democratic State legislature has ever given sanction to such enactments, it has been because an active Republican minority took the initiative and forced the issue.

SHIPS AND SHOPS

Some time back the National Democratic Club of New York City, in a resolution favoring the Government ship purchase bill, said: "Owing to American standards of wages, safety at sea and human conditions of labor for American seamen, private enterprise cannot be relied upon to provide ships, because experience has demonstrated that private capital cannot successfully compete against the handicap of lower standards maintained by other maritime nations." Was this one of the arguments which induced Congress to appropriate $50,000,000 for the purchase of ships? And yet the Democrats are categorically opposed to the only fair legislation which will put the American manufacturer on terms of equality with his European competitor and his pittance-paid workmen—a protective tariff. If it is good for a ship, why not for a shop?

Rev. Marion Nelson Dalwitz, of Arkansas, speaking to the Woman's Wilson Union, in Washington, October 24th, and advocating the re-election of Woodrow Wilson, said that after the European war there will be only one flag and one nation on the Western Hemisphere:

"Mexico will be annexed to the United States; Canada will be a part of our country; and South America will come under the American domain. There is no room on this continent for two nations any more than there is one house big enough to hold two families," he declared. Merely sakes! Does the good domine hope for the slogan: "Peace in the East, War in the West. Thank God for Wilson?"

Editorial Comment

The Wilson Keynote.

In his kneeling to the demands of the triumph, in his sacrifice of the sacred principle of arbitration on the altar of peace-at-any-price, we see, in review, the whole philosophy of the Wilson theory of government and nationality.

"It is better to run than to fight." That theory is at work in American government today for the first time.—Boston Journal.

The Wilson Waltz.

In view of recent events the following formula overheard on a hotel veranda may be of interest: The Wilson waltz, one step forward, three steps backward, hesitate, then sidestep.

The Administration is depressed by the reflection that under no circumstances can it postpone election day.

Wilson insists that he will never recognize government by assassination, but he hasn't cut off relations with those who have assassinated Americans.

The first President and the first Congress that ever submitted to a hold-up.

And, by the way, nobody will ever be able to claim this was a regular Democratic Administration unless we have a bond issue before March 4, 1917.

Betting on Hughes and Wilson is dangerous, as both to Democrats and Republicans. In one of the New England states each a bet was made a few days ago. The officers heard of it and they arrested the Republican on a charge of robbery and sent the Democrat to an insane asylum. He careful.

One thing we must all admit. The President is never too proud to sidestep.

A surplus of $5,200,000 from the postal service during the fiscal year ending June 30, is reported by Postmaster-General Burleson. With the department more than paying expenses, it would seem that the executive officials could afford to keep on the payroll members of the National Guard, who responded when the President called on the organized militia for duty on the border.

A doormat leads a life of supreme peace, but it has to stand for an awful lot of stepping on.

Add famous quotations of history: "I'll surrender on this line if it takes all summer!"

Now Ellis Parker Butler, author of "This is Pigs," has declared for Wilson. It's a great administration for pork, all right.

Now that Mr. Hughes has left Missouri they're referring to it out there as the "I'm Shown" state.

The people of Vera Cruz who have erected a monument in the plaza to the Mexicans slain in battle seem to be ignorant of the fact that Mr. Wilson kept this country out of war.

Evidently Mr. Wilson has made up his mind about something. He refers in his acceptance speech to "the sovereign authority of Mexico." He may have decided to whom he was referring. Less than two years ago he was not sure whether it was the soldier-bandido Villa or the grocer-grafted Carranza.

The Administration ought to be able to take a comfortable rest. It has turned pretty much everything over to commissions from the Mexican question to the tariff. The talent for shirking responsibilities comes handy sometimes.

President Wilson seems to have founded his diplomacy on a rock which is off its base most of the time.

The Eastern witnits persist in referring to the Secretary of the Navy as Miss Josephine Daniels. No wonder the Woman's Party is camping on the trail of the Administration!

Mr. Wilson forgot to mention the pledges of economy in the 1912 platform.

"In his diplomacy," says Ollie James, "the President has sounded a new note." What, another one?

It begins to appear that that single-track mind system will have to be temporarily double-tracked. A few weeks hence, of course, it will be side-tracked.

A handful of common sense is worth a bushel of learning.

ARE YOUR KIDNEYS SICK?

Many Maysville People Have Kept Well By Keeping Their Kidneys Well.

The first symptom of kidney trouble may be only a slight pain in the back, a feeling of stiffness or soreness in the loins, or some annoying irregularity of the urinary passages. Urine is often discolored and perhaps sediment gathers upon standing. Next may come a dull, throbbing backache, sharp, knife-like pains, headaches, dizziness and in many cases, lameness when arising in the morning. No one can afford to delay until these troubles become serious. Begin using Doan's Kidney Pills, the tried and tested kidney remedy that has won the praise of thousands. Maysville readers should find convincing proof of merit in the following statement. It's from a resident of this locality.

A. Sorries, locksmith, Aberdeen, O., says: "The action of my kidneys was irregular and the kidney secretions contained sediment. I had backache and when stooping, it was hard for me to straighten up. Colds always acted on my kidneys. I used Doan's Kidney Pills and they stopped the trouble and my kidneys became strong."

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Sorries had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

WASHINGTON AND LINCOLN PUT RIGHTEOUSNESS BEFORE PEACE.

The supporters of Mr. Wilson say that the American people should vote for him because he has kept us out of war. It is worth while to remember that this is a claim that cannot be advanced either on behalf of Washington or of Lincoln. Neither Washington nor Lincoln kept us out of war. Americans, and the people of the world at large, now reverence the memories of these two men, because, and only because, they put righteousness before peace. They abhorred war. They shunned unjust or wanton or reckless war. But they possessed that stern valor of patriotism which bade them put duty first; not safety first; which bade them accept war rather than an iniquitous and disastrous peace. There were peace-at-any-price men in the days of Washington. They were the Tories. There were peace-at-any-price men in the days of Lincoln. They were the Copperheads. The men who now with timid hearts and quivering voices praise Mr. Wilson for having kept us out of war, are the spiritual heirs of the Tories of 1776, and the Copperheads of 1864. The men who followed Washington at Trenton and Yorktown, and who suffered with him through the winter at Valley Forge; and the men who wore the Blue under Grant, and the Gray under Lee; were men of valor, who sacrificed everything to serve the right as it was given them to see the right. They spurned with contemptuous indignation the counsels of the feeble and cowardly folk who in their day spoke for peace-at-any-price. From the Speech of Colonel Roosevelt at Battle Creek, Michigan, in Behalf of Mr. Hughes.

KICKERS' CORNER

If any one at any time for any reason has any cause to "kick" in any way at anything of any kind, here's the place to say his say. The door is open--walk right in and help yourself, free gratis and for nothing--but don't make your "kicks" too long--it's the short, quick fellows that count--and cut. The name of the Kicker must accompany the kick, or it'll be kicked into the waste-basket.

THE HOG SITUATION

Editor Public Ledger:

There has been much said and done regarding the keeping of hogs in the Sixth Ward. The Board of Health has invested that the owners should remove their hogs at once beyond the city limits.

The main point of this contention is not, as has generally been supposed, the refusal of the owners of hogs to comply with the law to abolish the hog pen, and to remove their hogs beyond the city limits, but the objectionable feature of this law is, that the enforcement of this law was pushed at a time when the owners of hogs could not comply with the law without loss and great inconvenience. In the months of late summer and early fall is no time to dispose of hogs, for the average owner.

The hogs are usually light and thin and as a consequence, if sold at all, must be sold at a loss.

The Board of Health has showed unlimited leniency to the C. & O. Railroad, their stock pens have been full of hogs the entire summer, and are likely to be kept full for an indefinite time.

Besides this, the Board of Health in pronouncing the big pen a nuisance have showed no scruples in unloading Sixth Ward's nuisances on our good neighbors of Mason county.

Their object in getting the hog pens out of the city, they say, was to safeguard the health of Maysville's citizens. Is it not possible that the residents along the North side of Forest avenue might also have their health endangered by the hog pens on the South side of said avenue.

If the Board of Health are compelling the owners of hogs to remove them beyond the city limits, and this is done in the interest of health, why should they not see to it that they are removed beyond the danger line. There is not a hog pen in the Sixth Ward as unsanitary as the C. & O. stock pens, yet, this corporation is allowed ample time to construct new pens, regardless of the danger to the health of the citizens living near it.

It is no more than right that the C. & O. should have ample time to build new pens, but is not the poor man entitled to some consideration?

These owners of hogs are not unwilling to comply with the law, but with a contract, permitting the raising of hogs in the Sixth Ward, now existing between the Sixth Ward and City of Maysville, but they are unwilling to sacrifice their hogs at an unmarketable season and lose their hard earned dollars they have invested in them, by unloading the Sixth Ward's nuisance on Mason county.

CHRISTIAN CHURCH MEETINGS

The address given by Rev. H. M. Stansifer of Flemingsburg, in the Christian Church was of a different type that the addresses given by others this week. The plainness and directness of the charges he made to his hearers as to way they were robbing God will make his address one long to be remembered. Every sentence was a center shot that went home. Though the house was well filled, this address should have been heard by every Christian in the city. There was a duet and a solo given as the special musical numbers last night.

The sermon tonight will be given by Rev. Bruce E. Cross of the Ripley Christian Church. Another large audience is expected at this service.

COUNTY COURT
